TOP TWENTY

Popular on the strength of the last two albums

AS MEASURED VIA LAST.FM & iTUNES

*Yes, I'm a bit of a stereotype.
(get it? stereo-type? cuz this is music? nevermind.)*

*This number is entirely inaccurate:
Aside from Michael Jackson, I listened exclusively to Stevie and FWM prior to purchasing the No Doubt album*

*Etheridge's experienced a rebirth of sorts.
She broke up with her wife and suddenly writes good music again. Her loss, my gain.*

*Here's how this one works:
1. Break up with your girlfriend.
2. Get depressed.
3. Listen to Chris Pureka on repeat.*

These two bands have made it onto the list based off incredibly limited songs: Against Me! had only 20 songs and Florence had only 16. In other words, I'm quite obsessed with both of them.

I'm glad Ani exists, but I can't believe I ever listened to her as much as I did.
